Was wrong to turn anti-corruption movement into a political party: HS Phoolka

MM BUREAU
New Delhi/January 05
 Senior advocate HS Phoolka, who quit the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) on Thursday, said it was "wrong" to convert the 2011 anti-corruption movement led by social activist Anna Hazare into a political party in 2012. Without directly criticising the AAP, Phoolka on Friday announced he would form a non-political organisation that could "call a spade a spade" without any diplomacy but said would not contest the Lok Sabha elections. He stressed the need for more people to form such outfits that would be parallel to political parties. Phoolka, who is leading a legal battle for the 1984 anti-Sikh riot victims, said he would continue his fight against the Congress and ensure its leaders Kamal Nath and Jagdish Tytler are booked in the case. Congress leader Sajjan Kumar was last month convicted and sent to jail in one of the riots cases. "The 1984 anti-Sikh riot case is my life's mission. In this council meeting did not go down well with many leaders in Punjab, including Phoolka. "In his press conference on Friday too, he (Phoolka) twice mentioned about anti-Congress forces supporting and uniting in fighting the 1984 riots case. In such a scenario, an alliance of AAP with the Congress would make them uncomfortable," a senior party leader said. Phoolka said his non-political organisation would work on social causes. "I will begin from Punjab and address the drugs problem. There are several others who had joined AAP and have left. They and others, including lawyers, doctors, need to unite to form such organisations, which will be parallel to political parties," he said. The senior lawyer said he refrained from being actively involved in politics through AAP for over a year. "A year ago, I had resigned as leader of opposition in the Punjab assembly to devote full time to the anti-Sikh riot cases. I had resigned as an MLA too, although the Speaker.

journey, I have got support from many non-Congress political parties. I will also not contest the 2019 Lok Sabha elections... Converting the anti-corruption movement into a political party in 2012 was wrong," he said. AAP, formed by Arvind Kejriwal and others, was an offshoot of the anti-corruption movement that took India by storm. While AAP refused to offer an official comment on the issue, party functionaries said its openness towards an alliance with the Congress for this year's Lok Sabha elections in its recent national

Ex- JDU MLA was dancing with pistol in one hand and drink in other, DJs tell police

MM BUREAU
New Delhi/January 05
 Former Janata Dal United (JDU) MLA Raju Singh was dancing with a pistol in one hand and a glass of liquor in the other, the two disk jockeys (DJ) playing at Singh's farmhouse during the New Year party reportedly told police. The DJs said Singh was drinking for an hour after the murder on the blood-covered dance floor, said a senior police officer privy to the investigation. The two DJs also gave their statement before a magistrate, which means it serves as admissible evidence before a court. Police said the DJs helped them string together the sequence of events that led to the death of 42-year-old Archana Gupta. Gupta was allegedly shot on the dance floor on Monday as the former legislator from Bihar was allegedly firing gunshots in the air to celebrate the New Year. Gupta succumbed to her injuries at a city hospital on Thursday afternoon. The Delhi Police team probing the case received the initial autopsy report on Friday. The report confirmed that the bullet which killed Gupta was shot from the gun recovered from Singh. Police said that Singh had used his licensed pistol. A police team will also travel to Kushinagar, UP, with Raju Singh and his bodyguard Hari Singh as part of the investigation. The two men were detained in Kushinagar on Wednesday as they tried fleeing to Bihar. The crime took place on Monday night at Singh's New Year's party at his farmhouse in south Delhi's Mandi village. Close to midnight, Singh and his accomplice Hari Singh allegedly started firing gunshots, one of which hit Gupta, who was on the dance floor. Gupta was pronounced dead on Thursday morning. The two men were caught in Kushinagar and brought to Delhi, after which they were formally arrested. On Thursday, Singh's wife and his associate Raminder were also arrested for allegedly tampering with the evidence and threatening guests at the party not to testify against Singh. "We have recorded the statement of the two DJs. They said they were busy changing songs when they heard the gunshots. Suddenly they saw and heard people screaming. They then saw Gupta lying on the floor. They said Singh drank for an hour after the shooting," said a senior police officer. "We checked CCTV footages in which the two men are seen with the guns. Singh is seen in the footage holding a pistol while his associate Hari is holding a rifle. The entry wound of the bullet in the woman's head is small. The experts have said that the injury was caused by .22 pistol bullet and that not of the rifle," said deputy commissioner of police (south) Vijay Kumar. Raju Singh's wife Renu and Raminder, who were arrested for tampering evidence, were sent to jail on Friday. "We have established that the bullet that killed Archana Gupta was fired by Raju Singh. We are now completing the missing links. We are yet to recover cartridges from the rifle and Hari Singh's blood drenched cloths," the DCP said. Gupta's family members had donated her kidneys on Thursday after she was pronounced dead. On Friday, a 45-year-old man and a 67-year-old elderly woman received Gupta's organs.

Suspected of theft, 18-year-old homeless man beaten to death by two men in Delhi

Our Correspondent
New Delhi/January 05
 An 18-year-old homeless man was killed after he was beaten up allegedly by two men over suspicion of theft in central Delhi's Paharganj on Wednesday night. The crime took place even as a policeman tried to stop the attackers, police said. The two men — identified by the police as the owner of a catering and tent shop, Rohit Kumar, and his employee, Sonu Rai — continued kicking and punching the homeless man even in the presence of the officer, police said. Police said the two men claimed that the victim stole their cycle cart. However, they could not provide police with any evidence to prove their accusation, said police. They were both arrested. A case of culpable homicide not amounting to murder under section 304 of Indian Penal Code was registered at the Paharganj police station on a complaint by the policeman, the sole eyewitness to the crime. The homeless man identified himself to the police as Shibu before his death. The policeman said he reached the scene after he received a call at 11am that two men were thrashing a man in Multani Dandha. The officer said the man was severely wounded by the time he arrived. "The injured man told me that he was thrashed by the tent house owner and his employee. At this, the shop owner, Rohit Kumar, and his employee, Sonu Rai, said that anybody caught stealing in their home would meet the same fate," the policeman said in his complaint. The officer said Kumar and Rai kicked the victim, who was lying on the road, in front of him. "When I objected, they told me that I would react similarly if someone would steal something from my house," the policeman said in the complaint. Deputy commissioner of police (central) Mandeep Singh Randhawa said the policeman rushed the wounded man to Sucheta Kriplani Hospital, where he was admitted.

Among Moti Nagar victims A 6-yr-old, a man about to get married, new workers

MM BUREAU
New Delhi/January 05
 It was not every day that six-year-old Hanshu would accompany his parents to the Moti Nagar factory where the couple worked. He would go to school with his sister while his parents toiled. But as fate would have it, the girl had to attend tuitions on Thursday evening, because of which Hanshu's parents had to tag him along to work. Hanshu and his 40-year-old father Rajesh were among the seven killed when an explosion caused the building to collapse on Thursday, about 90 minutes before the family would have returned to the safety of their homes.

On Friday, Hanshu's mother Anju continued to battle for her life, her young daughter praying by her side in the intensive care unit (ICU) of Acharya Shree Bhikshu Hospital in Moti Nagar. The other dead included a 21-year-old young man, Ajay Kumar, who had been engaged to a woman just a fortnight ago, and a 23-year-old man, also named Ajay Kumar, who had begun working at the factory only on Wednesday and had planned to visit Vaishno Devi temple with his friends on Saturday. The post-mortem of two bodies was conducted on Friday while the autopsies of the other dead people would be performed on Saturday after their relatives arrive. While six of the dead were identified by Friday morning, the seventh victim's identity was ascertained nearly 17 hours after the mishap. That victim, 18-year-old Sanjay Prasad, had been working with his older brother Gangesh at the factory for the last two months. The siblings were buried under the rubble but Gangesh was lucky to be rescued alive. "Gangesh and I were unable to find Sanjay anywhere. We thought he had escaped alive," said the siblings' uncle, Mahender Prasad. Mahender said he and his friends searched for Sanjay at the mishap site and at four hospitals but in vain. Mahender sought police's help in the afternoon after which he was shown the photos of the dead. Sanjay was one among them. "I don't know how to break the news to Gangesh. He is so hopeful about his brother," said Mahender at the DDU Hospital's mortuary. Similar was the predicament of Ajay's brother, Rohit. "Ajay was engaged on December 18 and was to be married in May. His fiancée is studying and Ajay too had taken up a correspondence course a year ago. He wanted a more respectable job after marriage. I don't have the courage to break the news to Ajay's fiancée," Rohit said.

Delhi joined select metro club in 2018 DMRC achieved new 'highs', 'depths'

New Delhi/January 05
 Delhi Metro, the capital's lifeline, shrunk distances and achieved milestones with the opening of seven sections, including its smallest and deepest stations in the year gone by, as it zoomed into a select club of metros globally. The last section made operational last year on its last day — the 9.7-km Lajpat Nagar-Mayur Vihar Pocket 1 corridor of the Pink Line, directly connected south and east Delhi on the rapid transit network, taking the total operational length to 327 km with 236 stations. But, it was the opening of the fifth corridor last year, in October — the 17.8-km Shiv Vihar-Trilokpuri Sanjay Lake section of the Pink Line — that brought the proud moment for the city metro, as it put Delhi among a select group of cities such as London, Beijing and Shanghai that have an operational metro network of over 300-km. The year also saw Delhi Metro and its riders literally reaching dizzying heights, giving passengers a bird's eye view of the sprawling city from a vantage point as high as the top of a seven-storeyed building.

नई दिल्ली, 05 जनवरी

दिल्ली के फतेहपुरखेरी में नए साल के जश्न के दौरान चली गेली लगने से हुई महिला आर्किटेक्ट अर्चना गुप्ता की मौत के मामले में पुलिस ने पार्टी में डीजे बजा रहे दो लोगों से शुक्रवार को पूछताछ की। पुलिस अब डीजे वालों से पूर्व विधायक राजू सिंह का आमना-सामना कराने की तैयारी में है, क्योंकि पूर्व विधायक के बयान में कई विरोधाभास नजर आ रहे हैं। उधर, मामले की जांच में जुटी पुलिस शुक्रवार को आरोपी रामेंद्र को लेकर फार्म हाउस पहुंची। वहाँ पुलिस ने छिपाए गए गोलियों के खोखों और कपड़ों की तलाश की, जिनकी मदद से डॉस फ्लोर साफ किया गया था। हालांकि अभी पुलिस को दोनों ही चीज बरामद नहीं हुई हैं। बता दें कि कथित रूप से राजू सिंह द्वारा चलाई गई गोलियों को अर्चना गुप्ता की मौत हुई थी। रेणु और रामेंद्र दोनों को गुरुवार को गिरफ्तार किया गया था। रेणु की तरफ से अदालत में जमानत की अर्जी दी गई है, जिस पर शनिवार को सुनवाई होगी। पुलिस के मुताबिक, रेणु ने अपने पति को बचाने के लिए घटनास्थल से खून के धब्बे साफ करा दिए थे। साकेत स्थित मेट्रोपॉलिटन मजिस्ट्रेट सलोनी सिंह की अदालत ने पूर्वजेंडीयू विधायक राजू सिंह की पत्नी रेणु सिंह और रामेंद्र सिंह को सबूत नष्ट करने के आरोप में 14 दिन की हिरासत में जेल भेज दिया है।
